

MULTIMEDIA LIBRARY FEATURE FILMS: OTHER

VARIOUS FILMS.....1

VARIOUS FILMS

DYBBUK In Yiddish, English subtitles only at beginning of film: 1937 121 min. (VHS)

Director: Michael Waszynski

Cast: Abraham Morewski, Lili Liliana, Isaac Samberg

Based on the Yiddish play by Anski. A bride who has been betrothed to a wealthy man is taken over by the dybbuk (spirit/ghost) of her true love who has recently died. Of the major Yiddish movies, many believe this classic to be the most artistic. Includes a famous exorcism scene.

MONGOL: THE RISE OF GENGHIS KHAN (DVD) - NEW

"History knows him as Genghis Khan, but before he became a warlord, he was simply a man named Temudjin. Exiled into slavery as a boy and forced into a life of struggle after his father is killed by a rival clan, the greatest military mastermind of all time survived on the strength of a single dream: to unite his people into the largest empire the world has ever known." In Mongolian, with English and Spanish subtitles. Nominated for the 2007 Academy Awards 'Best Foreign Language Film'. 2007.

THREE COLORS TRILOGY by Krzysztof Kieslowski

BLUE In French: 98 min. (DVD)

Director: Krzysztof Kieslowski

Cast: Juliette Binoche, Benoit Regent, Helen Vincent

A young woman is left devastated by the death of her husband and daughter. She retreats from the world around her, but is soon reluctantly drawn into an ever-widening web of lies and passion as the dark, secret life of her husband begins to unravel.

WHITE In French: 92 min. (DVD)

Director: Krzysztof Kieslowski

Cast: Julie Delpy, Zbigniew Zamachowski, Janusz Gajos

The second film in Kieslowski's trilogy. After his beautiful wife of six months leaves him, Karol Karol's life disintegrates. Forced to begin anew, he rebuilds his life, only to plan a dangerous scheme of vengeance against her.

RED In French: 99 min. (DVD)

Director: Krzysztof Kieslowski

Cast: Irene Jacob, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Jean-Pierre Lorit

The final chapter in Kieslowski's trilogy. A young model whose chance meeting with an unusual stranger leads her down a path of intrigue and secrecy. As her knowledge of the man deepens, she discovers an astonishing link between his past and her destiny.